Terms and Conditions

This invoice is payable on receipt, and is delinquent if not paid within thirty days after sale of the goods or performance of services described herein. If this invoice is not paid before delinquency, J M ELECTRIC will incur damages by reason of the breach of the terms of sale. Because it is impractical and extremely difficult to determine the amount of damages actually suffered by J M ELECTRIC if this invoice is not paid in full before delinquency, we agree that liquidated damages equal to one and one-half percent of the delinquent principal balance of this invoice will be imposed by J M ELECTRIC for each month this invoice is delinquent. If this invoice is delinquent for a period of one year, the total liquidated damages would equal eighteen percent of the unpaid and delinquent principal balance of this invoice.

If for any reason J M ELECTRIC cannot recover the late charges described in the above paragraph, J M ELECTRIC will charge interest on Credit Applicant's delinquent account at the then highest rate allowed by law in the State of California, which at present is five percent over the bank discount rate in effect at the time the agreement is made which provides for payment of interest.

If it becomes necessary to file suit to recover amounts due under this invoice, J M ELECTRIC shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorney fees together with costs of suit. This invoice is all due and payable at the office of J M ELECTRIC in Salinas, California
