

Dirt stockpile site is approximately 10 miles along Rancho San Carlos Road from the Rancho San Carlos Streambank Stabilization Project. Santa Lucia Preserve is private property. The Preserve management will provide a pilot vehicle for travel through the Preserve. One-way travel time is estimated at 30 minutes. Road surface is good to excellent, with some curves. Material available is a combination of decomposed granite and silty loam mixed with ground-up vegetation.